Do Playground Facilities For Boys and Girls Tend to Decrease Crime?

A QUESTION that has been asked throughout the ages is "Why is a bad boy bad? What are the contributory causes which start the juvenile on a career of crime and cause some to become habitual criminals?" While this question has been asked many times very little thought or study was given the subject until the present generation. Innumerable laws were enacted to punish the law-breaker but nothing was done to go to the source of the trouble and take remedial measures.

In late years authorities on juvenile crime have arrived at the conclusion that the lack of suitable playgrounds is responsible in a measure for the vast amount of juvenile crime.

In eight years the average age of those appearing in the criminal courts has been getting lower until at the present time 67 per cent of those appearing before the court are between the ages of 18 and 25. This demonstrates that our problem now is not the reduction of the hardened criminal element but more the providing of playground facilities which will take care of the idle time of our youth. By furnishing these playground benefits we give plenty of opportunity for taking care of the excess energy of our youth which otherwise might seek channels less wholesome.

Our generation the problem was not so acute, for we had our vacant lots in which to have our games, and on every afternoon after school hours most of them were in use. That playgrounds do reduce juvenile delinquency has been proven in many cities through a check-up of the court records. In St. Louis the opening of a playground in a certain district reduced juvenile delinquency 75 per cent in the whole city. A municipal recreation system in Passaic, N. J., was the means of making the juvenile court close after five months through lack of cases to try, the police judge of that city saying that "The children are so busy at play they have no time to get into mischief."

We presume you who happen to read this article will decide in your own minds that it would not apply to Glendale for we have no such problems to worry about. This might be true but do you happen to know whether or not it is a fact. Have you taken the trouble to investigate or control to any extent the activities of the Glendale youth? You do know that as a community we have made no effort to speak of to provide for playground facilities. True the matter has been brought up many times, but something supposedly of more importance has caused a postponement. Are the youth of Glendale any different from those elsewhere? If the lack of playgrounds and other wholesome recreation facilities has caused juvenile delinquency to increase, why is it not fair to assume that it has also increased here?

ABOUT a year ago an editorial appeared in the Glendale Daily Press entitled "Sowing the Whirlwind," and later on another one came out under the title of "While Parents Slumber." Both of these caused the parents to hesitate and take stock.

It also brought some young people to realize the folly of their ways. If the editorials we mention were justified at that time, and the facts that they were, how about today? Have we profited by the experience of last year? We can through knowledge answer this with an emphatic, "No!" It is true the pasture has changed, but the conditions of the new stamping grounds are just as bad if not worse, and it behooves us to look about us and become better acquainted with what is going on around us.

FROM BARBER TO BANKER—NEXT TO PENITENTIARY

BOSTON, Nov. 14.—Joseph B. Marino, of Chicago, who rose from barber to banker and became involved in many financial difficulties in various parts of the country, was sentenced today to four years and three months in the federal penitentiary at Atlanta by Judge Moron in the federal district court. He had pleaded guilty to an indictment for aiding and abetting in misapplication of $200,000 of the funds of the First National Bank of Warren, Mass., last February.

Realty Board Plans Great Things for Glendale in Coming Year

NEW PRESIDENT OF REALTY BOARD SHOWS OPTIMISM

Peter Hanson, After Brief Retrospect, Paints Glowing Future

Full text of address delivered by the new president, Peter Hanson, at today's meeting the Glendale Realty board follows:

"Looking back upon a year of splendid achievement, a doubled membership, enlarged publicity program, adequate financial policy, one hundred per cent state and national board, full-time secretary and harmonious membership, we account due credit to the retiring officers and efficient committee as well."

"As we set out upon the voyage of another year it is fitting we should take soundings to determine our course. Those of us to whom have been entrusted the helm, pledge our best guidance. Keeping close watch at the wheel, we shall avoid the shoals and rocks and with harmony among the crew and no mutiny aboard, our little cruise should be a pleasant one. Together we hoist anchor, set our sails and launch out. With the varying winds we may adjust our sails and change our course as we go. But our port will ever be a Greater Glendale."

"We stress that the board does not belong to the officers, nor to the governing committee. It is emphatically community property. All members share alike and alike should have a voice in its policy. Speak your mind in its deliberations and you will not complain afterwards, but rather respect the will of the majority."

"Sound business suggests that our increasing finances require a carefully prepared budget, approved system of accounts, audit of the books and a monthly financial report. For this purpose recommendations should be made by the board for the guidance of the governing committee."

"Ambiguity of meaning, admitting of double interpretations, as shown when present amendments came up, and also at the last election, has brought out the necessity of a revision committee for going over the constitution and by-laws."

"While the Glendale Realty board is an incorporated body and the governing body, therefore, has its powers defined under the law, the character of our organization and the work we are doing prompts a policy of publicity, unless expediency forbids. The governing committee is a shop for fair play but not a pawn shop for personal gratification."

"The work of the past year could not have been done without an office and a competent secretary in charge. But our meagre office equipment must be made adequate and hardly in keeping with the standing of our board. When the directors meet they are compelled to stand or sit on borrowed tables, while our secretary lacks desks. For our use as well as the impression gained by strangers, this need should be supplied."

"While our weekly meetings are an established institution, we are still scouting for a satisfactory place. To sustain interest these meetings must be made interesting to our profession. Without forsaking good fellowship we must take up subjects of vital interest to our business. With only one business meeting a month, we could use alternate meetings for a real estate course under an educational committee."

"Jink's Day" and "Realtors' Million Dollar Entertainment" are high spots of diversion. Other chuckles might come from a banquet or a 'trek' to the hills. More power to the social committee."

"The multiple listing system was tried out but ended disastrously, for lack of loyalty and cooperation. Fair play is essential to its success. The system is right if we treat it right. Even with few using it over $1700 was turned into it over $857,825. In a few years it will be in general use. Shall we be in the van or lag behind?"

YOU CAN REGISTER NOW AT THE DAILY PRESS OFFICE

Mrs. Harriet J. Thompson of the staff of the Glendale Daily Press has been appointed registrar of voters, and will be glad to take care of the needs along this line of all those who are not registered at this time. She may be found at the office of the Daily Press from 8 in the morning until 5 at night, and will remain a little later in the evening occasionally by special appointment.

Every resident of Glendale should be sure to register in time for the coming sewer bond election. This is without doubt the most important election ever called in Glendale in the history of this city. The bonds are absolutely vital for the advancement and even the life of Glendale and every resident should get out and push the bonds "over the top" with a shout.

Remember, Mr. and Mrs. Voter, you cannot vote unless you are registered in the precinct in which you live. If you have moved out of the precinct in which you registered you must register before you can vote.

W. M. THORNTON GIVES FINE TALK TO CLUB

"Life Insurance as an Investment" was the subject of a talk by Walter M. Thornton of Los Angeles at the weekly luncheon of the Exchange club.

"It is a pleasure to talk life insurance to you," remarked Mr. Thornton because this is the fastest growing business in the United States today and Glendale is the fastest growing city in America."

"There is more life insurance in the United States than in all of the other countries put together. One man out of every ten at the age of 35 is uninsurable because of the state of his health according to Mr. Thornton. He called attention to the fact that out of 100 young men starting out in life at the age of 25, at the age of 65, 36 will be dead, 54 not self-supporting, five self-supporting, four well-to-do and one one rich."

Two solos by D. Ripley Jackson of 1300 South Brand boulevard, who presided at the meeting, were well applauded. One was "Ten Thousand Years From Now" while the other was "Waiting for the Sunrise."

Mike Kaufman of Hollywood was the accompanist. B. L. Cline of 134 North Orange street won the attendance prize. This was donated by Frank Salma-cia of the Glendale Music company.

its place, but its abuses does a city no good. A dozen signs on a lot is an unsightly misuse, not an advertisement. Berkeley abolished signs with a bonfire. Why not celebrate in Glendale?"

"We love our city. We stand for her betterment. We love our civic pride, and promote her welfare. Parks and playgrounds are of vital interest to the realtor. This board should sponsor a movement to meet this need."

Our board compliments the city council on the sewer contract with Los Angeles. We have got to have sewers. The bond issue must be put across. Cooperating with the city council and other agencies, we should offer our united strength and make it one hundred per cent. "We glory in the fact that we were the first large board in the state to become a one hundred per cent board. We need the state and national associations to get needed legislation for our profession. They need our support. In furtherance of this is urged a full attendance at the regional conference and the 1924 convention at Pasadena, and co-operating with every agency for our mutual benefit."

"While avowing our loyalty to the state association, we protest against the present method of electing state directors—a self-perpetuating body. The state wants our money. We want them to have it. But we demand the right to name our own directors, to say how the money shall be spent. We want directors who will represent our board. Believing this board is quite capable of choosing its own directors, action is suggested to abolish this system."

"With a clear sky and a favorable breeze, we now cut loose from our moorings, and with the cherished hope of a splendid cruise, these suggestions are respectfully submitted for your consideration."

SPEEDERS' COURT NETS GOODLY SUM IN FINES

Citizens of Glendale, Burbank, Los Angeles and Elsewhere Penalized

About 30 traffic cases were heard yesterday by Judge Kenneth C. Newell of Pasadena, substituting for Judge F. H. Lowe in the local police court.

A charge of reckless driving against H. P. Conrady of Hollywood was dismissed. He was arrested October 17 following a collision on Glendale avenue. The complainant was J. G. Rowe of 585 East Lomita avenue. The $75 bail was refunded.

Glendale was represented in the court by eight speeders while Ray C. Spink of 465 West Lexington drive failed to appear and forfeited his $30 bail. A $25 fine against W. W. Diederich of 719 South Central avenue was suspended. Fifteen dollar fines were paid by W. A. Dreger of 317 North Isabel street and W. A. Godeschalk of 314 West Windsor road. Five who were fined $5. Joe Boyland of 415 West Palmer avenue; Richard Hopkins, 1233 North Central avenue; Thomas J. Sherlock of 133 South Maryland avenue; F. L. Ditty of 524 South Louise street; W. A. Woodbury of 315 West Cerritos avenue.

Los Angeles was represented by five speeders: J. J. Ferlin, $25, suspended; Richard G. DeSamar, $25; L. La Dolce, $25; A. Bevis, $10, suspended; W. E. Lewis, $25, suspended.

Other traffic offenders who were penalized were Bessie Malin, Montrose, $30; San Parnall, Hollywood, $25; Oliver F. Doerr, Pasadena, $25, suspended; J. F. Stanford, Pasadena, $25.

For passing another car on an intersection, Ralph Gambino of Los Angeles was charged with having parked within 15 feet of a fire hydrant, failed to appear in court and forfeited $10 bail. A. G. Dewey of Burbank paid a $10 fine for driving his automobile on the sidewalk.

SUNSHINE HOME BENEFIT TICKETS SELLING WELL

Promoters of the benefit entertainment to be given Thursday evening in the Tuesday Afternoon club auditorium for the "Sunshine Home" at 118 West Palmer rejoice over their success in selling already over $300 worth of tickets and securing advertisements enough to fill a 32-page program. They are hoping to sell enough to bring returns to $1000 for this worthy charity which is being fostered by a board of local directors of which Mrs. F. E. Root is president, Mrs. W. E. Pelley, vice-president; Mrs. O. F. Saunders, secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. Pearl Keller who is directing the program in which her most talented pupils will take part, is greatly interested in the home and a member of the board of trustees. She is also a member of the Ways and Means committee which includes Miss Millie E. Karges and Mrs. M. H. Brown. Mr. Brown and Mrs. B. Cahoe are likewise members of that establishment.

In addition to the final program of the Keller School, numbers will be contributed by the Bayre Sisters, and Postmaster D. Ripley Jackson will sing.

OPERA CLUB MEETING AT CASTLE SANS SOUCI

Mrs. E. Cleophas and Miss Gertrude Cleophas of 337 North Central avenue attended the regular monthly meeting of the Opera club of Los Angeles, held Monday night at the Castle Sans Souci in Hollywood. There were a number of celebrities present including Cavalier Enrico Piana, T. B. E. R. con-sul to Italy; Cavalier Fulgenzio Guerrieri, Duchess Stella di Lanti, and others. Mrs. Nellie Horn of Tujunga, who is famous for her portrait paintings of celebrities, was also present and had a large portrait of Caruso that she had painted.

The topic for the evening was "Italian Music." There were instrumental and vocal numbers and sketches of the history and development of Italian music.

EXCHANGEITES ARE HOSTS AND LAUNCH COMMUNITY BAND

Splendid Program Given Before Enthusiastic Audience

Exchangeites were hosts Tuesday evening in the high school auditorium and had the pleasure of presenting their initial public performance, members of the Community band organized under the auspices of Community Service and fostered by the Exchange club. The players and their associates on the program did credit to the parent organization and their foster fathers, the band numbers including:

"War Eagle March" (Berry); "Rays of Gold Overdies" (Wheeler); Gavotte, "In Olden Days" (Johnson); Intermezzo "Carnation" (Johnson); march, "Victory of War" (Johnson). Miss King Oates presided at the piano and Mrs. George W. Pierce gave three humorous readings: "White Sox," "Minnie at the Roller Skating Rink," and "Don't Go, Bill!"

Harry Fraser gave Scotch dances in costume to a happy accompaniment. Mrs. Mina Wenzel sang "The Songs of Songs" (Maya), and "My Love Will Outlive It All" (Blaufoos), and President D. Ripley Jackson of the Exchange club sang "The World is Waiting for the Sunrise" (Sitz), and "Ten Thousand Years From Now" (Ball).

Members of the community band of which Arthur Balas is director, and the instruments they play, are: E. C. McFarland, clarinet; C. J. Donaldson, clarinet; David Hanna, clarinet; Dr. R. J. Lippold, clarinet; A. C. Holcomb, clarinet; Jay Woodward, saxophone; W. S. Gregory, saxophone; Ed Cline, saxophone; Frank Howe, saxophone; Francis Ricksecker, bassoon; C. A. Jones, bass drum; F. M. Chobe, drum; K. P. Ostrander, snare drum; H. W. Hodgkins, snare drum; L. D. Stilwell, tuba; A. M. Jenkins, tuba; Ford McKnight, alto; Newton Clark, alto; J. H. Bacon, baritone; C. C. Calvert, baritone; H. Snow, slide trombone; B. Aazeson, slide trombone; Ivan Dow, solo cornet; L. Chabre, cornet; F. C. Stroner, cornet; Geo. B. Calvert, cornet; W. Paul Elliott, cornet; C. W. Love, cornet; A. J. Shormaker, cornet; H. R. Lippold, cornet; Edwin Bentley, cornet; R. W. Graham, cornet; O. W. Wright, cornet; A. C. Holcomb, manager; F. C. Stroner, secretary.

CREAMERY BANDIT STILL AT LARGE AND CLUES LOST

The bold bandit who robbed the office of the Calla Lilly Creamery at 647 Porter street of $300 yesterday in broad daylight, is still at large.

Hope of his capture yesterday afternoon went glimmering when H. Leigh, owner of the Chevrolet touring car in which the sensational escape was made, was located and reported that the automobile had been stolen from him. He was amazed when informed of the robbery.

Police departments of nearby communities have been requested to be on the lookout for either the stolen automobile or the bandit, a good description of whom was obtained. It is believed that the machine has been abandoned somewhere in the vicinity of Pasadena.

MRS. DOCKERAY HEARS OF DEATH OF A RELATIVE

Mrs. Edith Dockeray and family of 723 South Louise street were greatly shocked to learn of the death by asphyxiation of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Paine of Long Beach. The Paines are the parents of Mrs. Dockeray's cousin, Mrs. George Dockeray. The death probably occurred Sunday morning but the bodies were not found until Monday morning, when neighbors, disturbed by their silence, went to investigate. They found the gas in the living room still burning, but a defective flue back of the radiator told the story. Mrs. Paine was on the couch and Mr. Paine had fallen between the living and dining room.

OWL DRUG STORE TO BE ENTIRELY REMODELED

The proprietors of the Owl Drug store, at the corner of Brand and Broadway, are completing arrangements for the entire remodeling of that establishment, this work to begin about January 1.

It is the plan of these boosters to make the Owl in Glendale one of the most modern drug establishments in Southern California, not excepting the stores operated by this firm in Los Angeles.

CONDEMNED MURDERER KELS MEETS HIS WIFE

FOLSOM, Cal., Nov. 14.—In the office of Warden J. J. Smith of the state prison here, shortly before noon today, Mrs. Alex A. Kels of Lodi saw for the first time since his supposed murder on September 12, last, the husband who had since been found guilty of murder and had been sentenced to be hanged next January 4. The meeting was an affecting one, both Kels and his wife showing signs of great emotion.

"DAILY PRESS LINERS LOOK GOOD TO ME," SAYS H. M. OVERTON

"I'm cutting out all my advertising."

So said H. M. Overton, 106 West San Fernando boulevard, Burbank, the other day— "Excerpting" the Glendale Daily Press classified.

"I have never known such 'pullers' as your liner ads. They seem to do the trick when every other means of publicity fails,—when all other mediums have been tried and found wanting. Every time I insert an advertisement in the Daily Press I get a flood of replies. They came from all over the district and in such volume that I am hardly able to take care of them."

"The reason I am sticking to the Glendale Daily Press and refusing to advertise in any of the other mediums in this section, is that your paper covers the entire territory, so why should I duplicate my advertising."

"When I want to reach the people in Glendale your paper takes my message to them. It does the same to the people of Eagle Rock, Burbank, Montrose, La Crescenta, La Canada and all the territory adjacent to these places."

"The Daily Press liners look good to me."

C. OF C. DIRECTORS URGE REPAIRS ON BOULEVARD

Section of Los Feliz From S. P. Tracks to River, Condemned

The board of directors of the chamber of commerce met last night for its regular weekly session and discussed several subjects of interest to Glendale.

The condition of Los Feliz road between the bottom of the grade and the Glendale boundary at the Southern Pacific right of way was commented upon and it was decided to bring its need of repairs to the attention of the Los Angeles city council and the Hollywood chamber of commerce.

"It is getting worse every day," remarked P. J. Hayselden of 901 South Glendale avenue. "I think something should be done about it."

The importance of the Community Welfare Chest was emphasized by W. E. Hewitt of 319 East Randolph street, director of the campaign.

"We have got to talk it," he explained, "and we have got to get out and work!"

Glendale is the connecting link between the Foothill boulevard and Santa Monica boulevard to the beach. Mr. Hayselden called attention to the fact that plans are now under way for the widening and lighting of this boulevard all the way from San Bernardino to Santa Monica.

"COVERED WAGON" IN MODERN FORM ROLLS INTO CITY

Ever since the covered wagons began crossing the plains that mode of travel had a great lure for Americans in whom the spirit of adventure and exploration never dies. Nowadays the "covered wagons" are propelled by motors and essentially they remain the same only the canvas is often replaced by a wooden roof. Such a vehicle passed through Glendale Tuesday and paused for a blessing at the Holy Family church on Elk.

It was labeled "Watson," and had traveled from that city in Ohio to Denver where the owner sold it to a Mr. Guyer, who, with three passengers, brought it to this coast. They will spend the winter in Los Angeles and Pasadena and return by the southern route, having come via Seattle and San Francisco. The little house on wheels was splendidly equipped for comfort with four hammock bunks slung up during the day time, a gasoline cooking stove, electric light and heat.

GLENDALIA HOTEL STOCKHOLDERS TO MEET

A meeting of stockholders of the Glendalia Hotel association is being held this evening at the Chamber of Commerce at 7:30 following a business session of directors held Tuesday night. Important announcements are to be made to night and all stockholders have been legally notified.

REALTY BOARD HAS HILARIOUS PARTY

Members "Make Up" in Great Style and Do Farcial Stunts

The party at which the Realty board initiated new members and which was held Tuesday evening in Odd Fellows Hall, proved the most hilarious function ever held in Glendale. That, at least is the opinion of many of the members in attendance.

Mayor Spencer Robinson gave it a good running start in a ten-minute series of anecdotes and local reminiscences of a real estate operator and kept his audience convulsed with laughter during the whole period.

He was followed by W. L. Trutt in appropriate character make-up who contributed a "Peer into the Sticks by a Jewish Lecturer from Palestine," who continued the good work of amusing the audience which Mayor Robinson had so successfully started.

While the new president of the organization, Peter Hanson, was "making up" for his contribution, E. P. Hayward and his brother, Julian, sang old time songs to the complete satisfaction of their audience, winning enthusiastic and deserved applause.

President Hanson was then summoned to the platform and gave an address designated as "Spams" which was in keeping with other stunts which had featured the program and in which he talked a great deal without saying anything and was vociferously applauded.

About this time representatives of the City Police Department appeared and arrested the presiding officer, Cameron Thom, retiring president; E. P. Hayward, retiring secretary; and Roy King, of the governing board. President Peter Hanson came to the rescue and bailed them out of the clutches of the law incidentally presenting to each on behalf of the Board a gift in appreciation of the service rendered by these officers, Cam Thom receiving a belt with a gold buckle, and Messrs Hayward and King gold pens and pencils.

Charles Guthrie, the board's first president, told something about how it came to be organized, and City Manager Reeves followed with a short talk in which he dwelt on what the activities of the board and its members had meant in the up-building of the city.

Candidates for membership were then asked to stand up, raise their right hands and solemnly take the oath of membership which they repeated after Cam Thom, who administered it.

The floor was then prepared for dancing and the revelry of the evening broke loose again. The serving of refreshments completed the entertainment, which will not soon be forgotten by those who participated.

Just Off the Wire From Here and There

[By Associated Press]

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—The passing of Dave Bancroft, Casey Stengel and Bill Cunningham from the New York Nationals to the Boston Nationals and the acquisition of Billy Southworth and Joe Oeschger is considered by baseball fan-dom as the opening move by Manager John McGraw towards almost complete reconstruction of the New York National League club.

If such it proves, it will mark the fourth time in McGraw's 21 years as New York manager that he has so overhauled his organization.

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—Two bank messengers were murdered by two bandits who stole $43,600 from them in a spectacular holdup today at the Fifty-fifth street addition of the Subway-Lone in Brooklyn.

SAINT LEO, Minn., Nov. 14.—Five bandits held this little inland town in a grip of terror early today while they wrecked the safe of the First State bank of Saint Leo and then fled without obtaining any money.

DE MOLAYS HONOR DEPARTING COMRADE

Valentine Hollingsworth, master counselor of Glendale chapter, Order of De Molay, was given a send-off last night by the chapter on the eve of his departure to Yuma, Arizona. A banquet was given in his honor at the Masonic temple.

At the close of the banquet he was presented with a ring bearing the insignia of the order in token of his work as master counselor. He has been in office less than two months, and is giving up the post because business calls him to Arizona. He is a charter member of Glendale chapter, and has held the stations of marshal, junior deacon and junior counselor.

Wesley Goodfellow, senior counselor, will complete the unexpired term of Hollingsworth, while David Lynd will advance to senior counselor, and Cullom Heffington to junior counselor.

COL. R. A. EDDY IS DEAD AT 86 IN SAN FRANCISCO

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 14.—Colonel Richard A. Eddy, a picturesque figure of the west, a pioneer Indian fighter and one of the industrial builders on Montana, is dead here.

He was born in New York state 86 years ago and came west in the 40's settling in Montana. Associating himself with A. B. Hammond, Colonel Eddy founded the town of Missoula. The Eddy-Hammond Company had large lumber, agricultural and mining interests. Sixty seven years ago, before the government had sent troops into the region, Colonel Eddy organized a company which fought Indians.

Having amassed a large fortune, Colonel Eddy devoted the last 40 years of his life largely to hunting, fishing and golf. At the age of 70 he took a golf championship at Los Angeles and at Santa Catalina island, he held the record for catching the largest tuna in the shortest space of time. He was noted as a hunter of large and small game. Colonel Eddy is survived by his widow, Mrs. Ida S. Eddy, and a step-son, George Lewis, both residents of San Francisco.

WONDERFUL PARK LEFT TO WISCONSIN CITY

J. W. Switzer of 904 South Adams left at the Daily Press office a copy of his home town paper the Fenimore, Wisconsin, Times, in which was an account of the dedication of a wonderful wooded park which had been left to the city by an old resident who had paid $80,000 for the bare land and its development into a recreation center. Is this a hint to some benevolent Glendalians to do likewise? Perhaps it would be better if he would do this before death robs him of the chance to receive the thanks of his grateful fellow citizens.

NOT A PIPE DREAM, BUT THIS IS ONE DREAM OF A TUNNEL

Robert A. Brackett, who is placing on the market through the office of J. M. Boland, 213 West Broadway, the new tract in La Crescenta, known as Sans Souci, is responsible for the statement that Brand boulevard will soon run direct through the Verdugo hills, according to the conversation he recently overheard while showing the property to two contractors.

Sans Souci was formerly a vineyard and each lot is covered with the choicest variety of table grapes. Owing to the early rains this year there were quantities of grapes left unpicked, not being fit for market. While some of these have thoroughly dried and become raisins, there are still many which are about half dried. Mr. Brackett affirms that his prospects while walking over the property became so engrossed in the picking and eating of grapes that all his arguments seemed to fall on deaf ears. Suddenly they became quite animated and excited and seemed bent on buying the entire subdivision, for they were going to build schools, churches, business blocks and everything else they could think of, claiming that it would be only a short time when Glendale would be so thickly populated that people would have to come to La Crescenta to find a place to live.

In order to facilitate traffic they were going to build a tunnel through Verdugo hills, which would lead direct to Sans Souci. Mr. Brackett says that he left his two prospects on the tract arguing as to which bank they were going to float their loans through.

FERBER'S GREAT REMOVAL SALE DRAWS CROWDS

Ferber's great removal sale, which started last week, is drawing hundreds of bargain seekers to the store every day, and the sale is a success in every way. When "The Store of the Town" moves into its new and larger quarters at Maryland and Broadway in the near future, the entire stock is expected to be sold, due to this stupendous sale.

Ferber's, coming to Glendale a little more than a year ago, have grown to such an extent that large space was needed, and the store will be complete in every department in its new location. Its slogan, "Working today for tomorrow," has been very fitting during the store's growth and the removal into the new building shows the significance of those four words.

LA CRESCENTA NOTES

The competition between the 7th and 8th grades in cleaning up and improving the school grounds is causing considerable excitement among the school children. A committee of Parent Teacher association members was appointed to judge the result of the work. Each grade has had $10 donated by the association, for which they will buy shrubs and flowers to beautify the grounds. The regular meeting of the P.T. A. will be held Thursday afternoon.

Harvey S. Bissell, president of the Los Angeles County Farm Bureau, returned Monday from San Francisco, where he attended the annual meeting of the California Farm Bureau Federation. Mr. Bissell, with W. S. Rosencrans, secretary of the Los Angeles County Farm Bureau and many others, attended as unofficial observers to bring their county in closer touch with the state activities. Mr. Bissell gives a most interesting report of the meeting, commenting on the splendid talk made by experts on taxation, legislation, transportation and public utility as affecting the farmer. Earl Goodall of Owensmouth was the local representative.

Many reservations are being made for the bridge and 500 party, to be given by the La Crescenta Woman's club Thursday evening, November 22, at the school auditorium. There will be attractive prizes and refreshments. Reservations can be made of Mrs. M. S. Collins, Mrs. A. W. Brown, Mrs. M. B. Darrow and Mrs. J. S. Martin of Montrose. The admission will be 50 cents.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul La Gue of West Montrose avenue were hosts at a charmingly appointed dinner last Thursday evening, complimenting their mother, Mrs. E. O. La Gue, this date being Mrs. La Gue's birthday. Garden flowers centered the table, where places were marked for Miss Val La Gue, Mrs. A. W. Brown, Madame E. Finette, the guest of honor Mrs. La Gue and Mr. and Mrs. Paul La Gue.

R. Landen of Los Angeles is one of the latest purchasers of acreage in La Crescenta, with the view of subdividing. Mr. Landen purchased a ten-acre tract from Frank Pregue and ten acres from Henry Belcar. Both tracts are on Ramsdale avenue, one on north and one on south Ramsdale. H. E. Bruce made the sale.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Keifer of East Sycamore avenue entertained a group of young friends last Monday evening in honor of their daughter Dorothy's birthday anniversary. Dancing and games were the diversions of the evening and were enjoyed by Misses Janet Culbertson, Marian Keith, Bessie Maxwell of Burbank, Virginia Keifer and Dorothy Keifer, the honoree and Messrs. Arthur Crowell, Donald and Robert Hendrix, Arthur and Alvin Hiller, Francis and Carroll Foy.

Herbert Hoover Says:

"It is my earnest desire that the Building and Loan Associations of the United States should be encouraged by the public-spirited citizens in every locality."

The Bureau of Commerce and Labor of the United States, after a thorough investigation of the Building and Loan Associations in every State in the Union, reported investments in a Building & Loan Assn. are as nearly absolutely safe as can be.

GOLDEN BROS.' BIG FOUR-RING CIRCUS WITH MANY TRAINED WILD ANIMALS

Since the beginning of time, almost, a circus has had greater attraction for the human race than any other entertainment or exhibition. No matter the kind of a show which may be on the bills, the circus leads them all when the tents are spread in the city or town where the exhibition is to be given.

There seems an attraction about a circus and more so about a real wild animal circus, which men can not resist, and the modern man and the modern circus have not changed materially since the first circus passed overland from place to place. Then there is other things which set the blood tingling in expectation days before the performance—the flaming posters of wild animals, clowns and daring feats. It cannot be disputed but that a circus acts as a stimulant which sends the blood tingling throughout the system. So with the "Golden Bros.' Big Four Ring Trained Wild Animal Circus" which will exhibit in Glendale on November 15 in mind we come to the thrills. This is particularly true in the fact that where a man trainer enters a cage of fierce African lions. This act is a climax to two hours of most absorbing entertainment of wild animal acts never before seen with any circus and will send the audience home feeling that something new and worthwhile had been witnessed. Of course this lion act is not the best as all are high class and clean beyond dispute. No attempt is being made to exaggerate when it is said that "Golden Bros.' Big Four Ring Trained Wild Animal Circus" is at the top of them all. Take the beautiful trained horses worth thousands of dollars, the beautiful ladies and everything, including the funny clowns. This circus leads them all and is rightly called the one circus of its kind in the world. Should this little story reach the eyes of the young lady or the mother let it be said that no woman or mother or child need fear to attend unaccompanied, as it is indeed a wonder show. New tents, modest side-shows, and absolutely devoid of any rough stuff so commonly found following a circus.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Brown of South Maryland avenue have just returned from a week-end motor trip to Santa Paul and Santa Barbara.

Events of Interest to Glendale and Its People

The many friends of Mrs. Ed N. Radke, 720 Howard street, will be glad to learn of her almost complete recovery from her recent illness. Mrs. Radke was confined to her bed for several weeks.

The home of H. H. Johnson, 509 East Windsor road, has been sold to I. W. Troxel, of 1503 Gardena avenue. Mr. Johnson will remain in Glendale, having established his family here.

Mrs. J. W. West of 1333 Valley View road is leaving tomorrow morning via the Santa Fe California limited for Chicago and other eastern points. She will be gone for three weeks and return via New Orleans.

Fred J. Bills of Oakland left Glendale Tuesday after having been the guest over the week end of his aunt, Mrs. J. Wagner of 416 Myrtle street.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fawkes and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. George Fawkes and daughter, A. L. Chandler.

PLANS COMPLETED FOR CONVENTION

Final arrangements are about completed for the convention of the realty boards in seventh district of the California Real Estate association, which will be held in Glendale on Saturday, November 17, with Charles B. Guthrie, state vice president in charge. The topic will be Multiple Listing of Real Estate. H. E. Nightingale, chairman of the California Real Estate association committee on multiple listing; A. A. Pointer, president of the West Hollywood multiple listing board.

THERE ARE SIXTY IN THE CAST OF 'OH-HO'

With Glendale's most attractive girls taking dancing roles in the big musical extravaganza, "Oh-Ho," and the cast of leads drawn from the best vocal and comedy talent of Glendale, the "Oh-Ho" show bids well to rank as one of the greatest successes yet staged here.

Mrs. A. H. Montgomery, chairman of the show committee for the Tuesday Afternoon club, has her committees well in line for the handling of the business details of the production. She claims that the show is going to play to no empty seats and that the club hopes to make this event the biggest money maker yet handled.

The cast will include sixty participants. Besides the ten leads in speaking roles and the big dancing chorus of popular girls, there will be twenty jazz boys for the college roles, for "Oh-Ho" is a musical show of college life, and chuck up with the doings at the fraternity and sorority houses.

The girls who are already at work in rehearsals are Dorothy Young, Georgia Young, Dorothy McGinnis, Charlotte Winsel, Ida Ingelhart, Dorothy Pickett, Dorothy Houston, Valera Trimmer, Beatrice Sutton, Beth Hughes, Marie Hearnshaw, Rebecca Hodge, Catherine Guthrie, Katherine Stott, Lucille Allen, Emma Laura Cooper, Charlotte Busby, Margaret Brown, Florence McLaughlin, Lois

Naudain, Margaret Longley, Winifred Parker, Evelyn Hunt, Doris Osmun and Evelyn Sample. "Oh-Ho" will be given early in December. The plans call for a two nights' presentation, but already the event is becoming so popular that Mrs. Montgomery is thinking of having the show run for three nights. The first performance is set for December 6th.

John Reber, who has staged the "Oh-Ho" show in sixty cities, has personal charge of the rehearsals for the Glendale show.

BEAUTIFUL HOPE CHEST

ON DISPLAY AT 231 S. BRAND

The beautiful hope chest, donated by the New England Furniture company for the Tuesday Afternoon club's society circus, is on display in the window of this firm at 231 South Brand boulevard. The chest is to be disposed of at the circus on Friday and Saturday of this week. Tickets may be purchased at the New England Furniture company or at the club house. Mrs. Alexander Mitchell, who has charge of this feature, requests all club members who have articles for the chest to take them to the store at 231 South Brand boulevard, where they will be on display with the chest.

GLENDAL CAT CLUB MEETS IN LOS ANGELES

Members of the Glendale Cat club met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Fred Hendrickson, 2725 West Avenue 31, Los Angeles, and discussed many matters in connection with the annual cat show of the organization, the date of which was tentatively set for January 16-17, the final date and place to be announced later. It is expected not less than 150 cats will be entered.

Clubs SOCIETY Churches

MUSICAL BENEFIT BY THE JEWISH SISTERHOOD SOON

The Jewish sisterhood of Glendale is giving a benefit musicale to be held on the evening of November 28, at the residence of Mrs. E. W. Kulny, 123 West Elk avenue. A splendid program has been arranged and will be printed in detail. Bogdan Giliewicz, a Polish baritone, will sing.

Bogdan Giliewicz has most recently come from Warsaw to live in Southern California and to sing for the American public. In order to do this Mr. Giliewicz closed a contract with the Government Light Opera company in Warsaw, where he has been a popular baritone for two years. He was decided in this move by the advice of Richard Ordynski, under whose direction Mr. Giliewicz appeared in several leading parts. Mr. Giliewicz began his artistic career on the spoken stage, but later spent five years in the Warsaw Academy of Music, that school which has given the world such celebrities as Chopin and Paderewski. Mr. Giliewicz sings in six languages.

A musical treat is in store for all those who will hear him. Tickets can be had at the door or from members of the Sisterhood.

FINE PROGRAM FOR BROADWAY P.T. A. THURSDAY

A very interesting program has been planned for the regular meeting of the Broadway P.T. A. to be held Thursday at 2:30 p. m. It will concern good reading, child hygiene and legislation, and the kindergarten teacher and pupils will contribute.

A meeting of the executive board will be held at 11 o'clock and members are expected to bring lunches and remain for the afternoon session. There is a call for clothing for certain families from which children are attending this school, viz. six-month-old baby, three-year-old girl, three and four-year-old boys, a nine-year-old boy, and two girls, 12 and 14 years of age. Mothers who have clothing to contribute that might fit any of these cases are asked to attend the meeting and bring it.

GLENDAL ART ASS'N TO MEET FRIDAY NIGHT

Friday night at 8 o'clock the regular meeting of the Glendale Art association, of which Mrs. Roy Ballagh is president, will be held in the public library on Harvard. John Cotton, the well known artist of this city, will give the second of his series of talks on American artists. These meetings are quite informal and afford opportunity for Glendalians to get acquainted with local artists and the artists with each other, and are proving delightful affairs.

MARY JANE GILLET TENT PLANS BAZAAR

Mary Jane Gillett tent members met Tuesday night at the Legion hall and made final plans for the bazaar to be held on November 27. Mrs. Susie Peck is to be general chairman in charge of the affair. Those who will assist her will be Mrs. Queen Danner, apron booth; Miss Audrey Hall, fancy work table; Miss Leona Hibbert, candy booth; Mrs. Jennie Tinscher, grab bag; Mrs. Harriet Long, cooked food table; Mrs. Cora Jones, refreshments. During the afternoon there will be cards. The remainder of last night's meeting was devoted to routine business.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS NOMINATE OFFICERS

Routine business and nomination of officers took up the greater part of the meeting of the Glendale lodge of Knights of Pythias, held Tuesday night at the K. P. hall. Election will take place at the first meeting in December. One candidate was put through the rank of esquire. On the last Tuesday of November there will be an open meeting, when Supreme Representative Robert G. Locke of Los Angeles will give a talk on "Pythianism."

PACIFIC AVENUE P.T. A. GIVES DINNER TO MOTHERS

Mrs. George Prickett, membership chairman of the Pacific Avenue P.T. A., had charge of a party given Tuesday afternoon at the school at which pupils in the room that brought in the largest number of mothers as new members, were guests of honor. Mrs. McKellar's room was the room of honor. Miss Taylor secured the second trophy. Mrs. George Squires being the room mother. A program of games entertained the youngsters in which Mrs. White and Mrs. Squires assisted, and refreshments of ice cream and cake were served.

ANNUAL THANKSGIVING MEETING OF W. C. T. U.

Annual Thanksgiving meeting of the Glendale W. C. T. U. will be held at 2 o'clock on Friday afternoon, November 16, at the home of Mrs. J. A. Quackenbush. Donations for the Old Ladies' home are requested. Mrs. Hughes, one of the officers of the home will be present and give a talk. The program will be in charge of Mrs. O. S. Palmer. The members are also requested to remember the appeal for the Japanese W. C. T. U. asking for second hand clothing. These may be delivered to Mrs. Ruby Smart, 110 Olive street, or Mrs. Edith Glassey on West California.

MADRIGAL CLUB REHEARSAL HELD TUESDAY NIGHT

Regular rehearsal of the Glendale Madrigal club was held on Tuesday of this week. According to reports made then on the membership drive being conducted, Mrs. McMullin's team is leading by 45 points. All of the music for the January concert of the club has been distributed.

ALL-DAY MEETING OF ST. MARK'S GUILD

St. Mark's guild members will hold an all-day meeting on Thursday at the home of Mrs. B. B. Atwood, 706 East Harvard street. All members are requested to be present for final arrangements for the bazaar on November 23. There will be pot-luck luncheon at noon.

UNITED ARTISANS TO EAT OYSTERS TONIGHT

United Artisans assembly No. 542 will entertain the members tonight at an oyster supper, to be served at the K. P. hall following a short business session. A large attendance is expected.

THE DANIEL McLEANS HOST TO CANADIAN CLUB

On Armistice night twenty-five members of the Glendale Canadian club were enjoyably entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel McLean, 1409 Valley View road. The house was decorated with flags and flowers. At the close of the evening refreshments were served by the hostess.

MRS. KAPP TO SPEAK BEFORE HOME ECONOMICS SECTION

Mrs. Henrietta Kapp will be the speaker at the regular meeting of the home economics section of the Tuesday Afternoon club at 2:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon. She will talk on "The Psychology of Color." Members of the club and their friends are invited to attend the meeting.

C. C. CLUB TO MEET AT CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Members of the Christian Circle club will meet Thursday night at 6 o'clock at the Central Christian church. Mrs. Neth of Los Angeles, founder of the club, will be the teacher.

Mrs. Nanno Woods announces the opening of the fourth year of her adult ballroom dancing class, every Thursday evening, starting Thursday, November 15, at 7:30 p. m. Ten weeks course, $6.50. "A nice way to meet nice people." 122 West Milford street. Glen. 394.

CYRUS C. GALLEY ESPOUSES MISS RUTH TIMMINGS

The wedding of Miss Ruth Gertrude Timmings of Hollywood and Cyrus C. Galley of Glendale took place at 8:30 o'clock Tuesday night, November 13, 1923, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Brown, 5626 Virginia avenue, Hollywood. Rev. John Kimber of Hollywood officiated at the single ring ceremony.

The bride wore a gown of embroidered white crepe de chine with wedding veil caught with orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet. The bridesmaid was Miss Dorothy Brown, who wore blue satin with pink silk net and silk flowers. She carried a bouquet of tiny pink rosebuds. Roscoe Bancroft of Hollywood was the best man. Pink, blue and white was the color scheme carried out in the decorations throughout the house and also in the refreshments. Mrs. E. C. Sisson was the pianist for the evening and played the wedding march from "Lohengrin" and other numbers. There were about 50 guests present, including intimate friends and relatives of the bride and bridegroom. Mrs. F. E. Brown and Mrs. W. W. Brown acted as the hostesses for the evening. After the ceremony a wedding supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Galley, after being trailed for several miles by their friends, went to the Hotel Christie at Hollywood. After a two weeks' honeymoon trip to San Diego they will make their home on West Doran street, Glendale.

SHRINE CLUB TO STAGE JOLLY SMOKER TONIGHT

Tonight one of its jolly smokers will be staged by the Shrine club of Glendale in Hahn auditorium. P. J. Hayselden, chairman of the entertainment committee which includes H. J. Vandewater and Bob McKenzie reports a program of boxing stunts, eats and a general good time in prospect for the affair, which all shriners in the city are invited to enjoy.

CANADIAN CLUB MEETS FOR BUSINESS SESSION

The Canadian club will meet for a business session to be followed by a program Thursday night at 8 o'clock in the K. P. hall. It will be for members only and the program, which will be in charge of Mrs. W. J. Farbar, will be musical.

TROPIC LADIES' AID TO HOLD BAZAAR FRIDAY

The Ladies' Aid of the Tropico Presbyterian church, corner of Laurel and Central, will hold its annual bazaar and chicken pie supper Friday, November 16. The sale will begin at 2 p. m. and the supper will be served cafeteria style from 6:30 to 8 o'clock.

PARLIAMENTARY LAW SECTION MEETING

Final plans of the Parliamentary law section of the Tuesday Afternoon club were completed at the meeting held on Tuesday at the club house. Mrs. C. A. Brandstater, curator, was in charge of the session, which began in the morning. At this meeting Mrs. W. H. Verity was elected as secretary for the section; Mrs. E. W. Gilliland, treasurer; Mrs. H. D. Fortier, corresponding secretary. Several new members were admitted into the section. At noon luncheon was served in the banquet room, when the members were greeted by Mrs. Daniel Campbell. The guest of honor was Mrs. P. S. McNutt, instructor of the section.

The luncheon speakers included Mrs. A. L. Ferguson, Mrs. Paul Webb, Mrs. C. C. Cooper, Miss Eva Daniels, Mrs. E. S. McKee, Mrs. Libbie Cutting and Mrs. Eugene Gilliland. Mrs. Gilliland spoke particularly on the ex-service men and women and urged members to make contributions of clothing, entertainment, magazines, jams and jellies for the patients at the Barlow sanitarium at Elysian park.

At 1:30 o'clock Mrs. McNutt conducted a most inspiring drill on "Organization" in which the members were very enthusiastic.

CENTRAL AVENUE M. E. LADIES' AID TO MEET

Members of the Ladies' Aid of the Central Avenue Methodist church held their regular monthly meeting on Tuesday afternoon from 2 o'clock until 4 at the home of Mrs. Leo C. Kline, 1124 South Central avenue. The hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. A. T. Hagen, Mrs. Julia Hayes, Mrs. Owen Galbraith and Miss Josephine Cooke. At the business session final plans were made for the bazaar to be held on November 22 at the church parlors. The members then adjourned for a social hour, during which refreshments of pumpkin pie with whipped cream and coffee were served.

CHARTER DAY IS OBSERVED BY THE TUESDAY CLUB

The celebration of "Charter Day" yesterday by the Tuesday Afternoon club was of double interest in that it had been just 15 years since the charter was granted to the club and also that the cornerstone for the present building was laid just one year ago.

A surprise had been arranged by Mrs. E. W. Hayward, program chairman, by which the following charter members were introduced in a very clever skit, a supposed telephone conversation between Mrs. H. C. Vandewater and Mrs. J. Roger Bentley regarding club affairs: Mrs. Alexander Mitchell, Mrs. C. J. Newcomb, Mrs. J. M. Banker, Mrs. H. E. Bartlett, Mrs. R. A. Blackburn, Mrs. D. W. Hunt, Mrs. A. L. Bryant, Mrs. C. W. Burket, Mrs. Helen Campbell, Mrs. F. W. Church, Mrs. F. H. Vesper, Mrs. C. F. Parker, Mrs. W. C. Fraley, Mrs. Edgar Leavitt, Mrs. Mary Ogden Ryan, Mrs. M. L. Tight, Mrs. P. S. McNutt, Mrs. C. H. Temple and Mrs. D. H. Imler, all of whom carried lighted candles in holders of green and gold, the club colors. Mrs. Church gave a short talk pledging the further support of the charter members in affairs of the club. When the club charter was received the membership was 68, 28 of these having retained membership to date.

Final plans for the big Society Circus on Friday and Saturday were announced by Mrs. A. H. Montgomery. In addition to the other features, there will be luncheon served at noon on Friday, a chicken-pie supper on Friday night. On Saturday over 300 realtors, more than half of whom are out of town men, will be served at luncheon. On Saturday night there will be a dancing party given by the Shakespeare section. Mrs. Daniel Campbell announced the coming Glendale Welfare Chest drive and urged the members to give their support.

Miss Winifred Rouse, speaker of the afternoon, charmed and closely held the attention of her audience during an address entitled, "Around the World in Fifty Minutes," in which she described her tour to the orient from San Francisco and home via New York. Her text was: "Blessed is that nation whose God is the Lord," and she showed the poverty and degradation, particularly of women, among the heathen nations.

She devoted considerable time to China and its political conditions which she described as "orderly chaos," where three presidents were running around at large at the same time and business went on as usual. Until after she made this tour she used to pity the frontier homesteader in his little lonely shack on the prairie, but after the depths of penury and vice revealed in China and sister countries, the homesteader in this public seemed to her infinitely rich. Education without the stabilizing effect of the Christian religion she pronounced dangerous and contrasted the hysterical behavior of Chinese university students with the calm, restrained attitude of pupils in the mission schools.

She also contrasted the beauty and gaiety of Paris with the heartache represented by its battlefield and sharply scored the false reports that have been circulated charging that the graves of the American dead are being neglected by the French. Miss Rouse also gave interesting incidents regarding her visit to Egypt and the Holy Land.

MONTROSE NOTES

The Woman's club of Montrose and La Crescenta will give a dance and masquerade party on Saturday, November 17, it is announced. The affair will be held in the La Crescenta school house auditorium where an excellent floor and good music will assure a good time for all who attend. Refreshments will be served during the evening. Prizes for the best costumes are being planned. The proceeds from the dance will help to swell the club's building fund.

Mr. and Mrs. Hal M. Selby, former residents of Montrose, have returned here after spending some months in San Francisco and the east. Mr. and Mrs. Selby sold their property when they left Montrose some time ago, but they declare that this is the only spot on earth so far as they are concerned, and they are planning to build a home on Glendale avenue where they have purchased some lots.

Mr. T. G. Leech, proprietor of the meat market in the Reinhard building, has purchased a new 5-passenger touring car, and is very much pleased with it.

"Babe" Brown and a pal enjoyed two days' hunting in the Antelope valley, taking advantage of the holiday Monday. They came home loaded down with jack rabbits which furnished their friends an evening's meal.

Montrose acquaintances of Mrs. Bullock, who resides in Verdugo Woodlands, will be sorry to learn of the accident with which she met Saturday. Mrs. Bullock collided with a heavy truck, the impact of the collision turning the car completely over. Mrs. Bullock was very seriously and painfully injured. The exact extent of her injuries is not yet known.

Mrs. Miller, her mother and a party of ladies, were visitors in Hollywood Monday. A very pleasant day was spent.

It is often difficult to stitch on the machine any thin material, such as silk or muslin, without puckering it. This can be avoided by placing a sheet of tissue paper under the material and stitching through the material and the paper. When finished, the paper can easily be torn away, and you will find that your work is quite flat and smooth.

ONE GOOD REASON

Colonel Harvey, back from England, has no hesitancy in giving the reason. He says that he is here because his Aunt Hannah roasts a turkey in a manner unknown on the other side. He was observed to be repressing with difficulty a tendency to smack his lips as he said it. Harvey has proved the soundness of his Americanism. The man who will leave an honorable station for the sake of nibbling a drumstick as perfected by the deft cookery of Aunt Hannah, needs advance no argument; his case rests.

There will be some relief at the explanation, for all sorts of rumors had been bruited about. There had even been hints that the ambassador, on the frequent occasions of opening his mouth, had not seasoned his remarks with discretion. This theory is banished because of the fact that to the last he was persona grata over there, and as often as he could spare the time, was wont to thrust his feet in perfect amity under the royal mahogany. Also the plain citizens of London gave him a send-off wholly friendly.

Some had opined that Harvey had been called back to deal with a political exigency, but he will not admit it. So far as his talk to reporters is concerned, it carries the intimation that his soul is above politics. Perhaps he will relent yet, and come down. A mind concentrated on Aunt Hannah's Thanksgiving turkey and fixin's hardly could turn at the same time to anything so commonplace as a campaign.

THE BELOVED TECHNICALITY

Mention was made recently of the act of a San Bernardino jury in overriding the instructions of a judge. The court had instructed them to bring in a verdict of acquittal for a defendant whom the evidence had shown to be guilty. The jury lost no time in reaching a decision, and decided in accordance with the evidence. This proved but a temporary victory for justice, as the court set the verdict aside. The general opinion is that even if by far-fetched methods the judicial course shall be sustained, that nevertheless, the court erred. A juror lacking the character to bring in a verdict in accordance with the evidence, and unfluenced by quibble, would not be living up to his oath. The real desire of the public is that justice be done, and not denied its dues.

The defendant in this instance was on duty as a policeman. He had been hired and paid for such service by the town of Needles. He was charged with abuse of a prisoner. There was, apparently, no defense attempted, save the neglect of the prosecution to establish the fact that the defendant was a policeman. This was a fact that in any other circumstances would have been accepted without question. The implication is that if not a policeman he had a perfect right to beat a prisoner. Should this defense be valid, the defendant should be prosecuted for impersonating an officer, and then as a private citizen be presented for assault. This, however, was not the idea of counsel.

The public is tired of such evasions. In a St. Louis case not long ago a plea for appeal was based on the circumstance that the state, although proving that the prisoner had carried a deadly weapon, that the weapon was loaded with cartridges, and the cartridges with bullets, had not proved that there was powder behind the bullets.

Needless to say such stuff is nonsense in St. Louis, and stuff on the same intellectual level is nonsense in San Bernardino.

COURTESY DECLINED

The attitude of France seems to have cut off from the United States the possibility of participating in any council regarding the reparation sought by the French from Germany. The secretary of state, in the interests of all concerned, had offered the friendly co-operation of the American government in considering if there could not be devised some way to shatter the present deadlock. If France had made a decision in advance, its assertion that whatever the council might conclude, this decision was final, ended the hope of intervention. For representatives of the various nations to meet and discuss a subject after they had been assured that the main question had been settled by one of the parties at interest, would have been a useless and rather grotesque spectacle.

The people of this country feel that they would be glad to aid the troubled folk of Europe to get back to the normal condition of having feet on the ground. Such influence as they may possess they willingly would exert on behalf of justice and peace. They have been informed that they are welcome to talk all they like, but that whatever they may say will be without the slightest effect. This may be construed very readily into a rebuff. If there is an experience particularly annoying it is that of being made ridiculous. This government is not a candidate for the dunce cap.

THE SINISTER SPIRIT

Among the banners recently displayed in a Moscow parade was one bearing the following legend: "German Work and Russian Bread Will Conquer the Whole World."

In this short sentence is the expression of a sinister, malign, and fraught with the potency of evil. It shows what ails Russia. If it were to find an echo in Germany, it would indicate the nature of the malady from which the latter country suffers. Nietzsche was the prophet and instrument of iniquity. "The will to conquer" is the curse of civilization.

There is no reason beyond an inordinate greed for power, and the delusion of grandeur possessed by the leaders of the soviet regime, why Russia, great and fertile, should not be contributing magnificently to the common wealth of nations. It might be at peace and secure in prosperity, if such were its desire. It might till its fields, keep its factories going, preserve its transportation system from rotting. It declines to do these things. It has declared war on order and social stability. Its purpose, covertly pursued but occasionally revealed, is to conquer the world. It is a futile and foolish ambition. Russia cannot conquer the world, but it may be annoying, a clog on progress. Its emissaries and propaganda and gold may have a blighting effect. Discontent may be promoted here and there. But all is wasted effort. It represents energy that a sane Russia would be applying to domestic improvements, to promotion of amicable relations with neighbors, to contributing to the welfare of humanity.

Germany, in its time, had thought to conquer the world. That the effort was not crowned with success, that it brought no happiness, won no esteem. Germany itself would admit it in frank mood. Two national failures, by combination hardly could master the greater portion of the world. But supposing they were able to do this, there would remain the task of fighting for supremacy as between themselves.

Why should any people, constituting a unit in the aggregation of nations, desire to conquer the rest? To hoe its own row, develop its own resources, maintain friendship with all, and to attend to its own business, were a far nobler ambition.

BACKING THE LAME

By ESTELLE LAWTON LINDSEY

What would you think of a man who bet on a race horse who had just been defeated in a series of races, and who then "broke his heart" when his favorite lost?

You'd probably wonder why somebody didn't have the poor simp locked up and kept away from temptation. Nobody who knows it will purchase a horse who has once lost his head and run away; and you can't sell an automobile that has been wrecked unless you keep your purchaser in ignorance of the accident.

It is only when it comes to husbands and wives that apparently sane people stake their all on the spiritually halt, lame and blind and expect no disaster to follow the unwise choice.

Now we shall treat this human weakness from the standpoint of the gambler. When one bets on an elephant one bets on him, taking into the odds the handicap of his weight, his normal and abnormal peculiarities and his native antipathies and sympathies.

When one bets on a lion one assumes in the bet all the risks of the cat's truculence and the potential destructiveness of the "favorite."

One could scarcely bet on a donkey without considering beforehand his tendency to balk and every explorer who rides a yak knows his disconcerting habit of running amuck to the bewilderment of his master and the confusion of the expedition.

The man who goes to market on a tortoise must perforce be long on time and if he elects to ride on a tortoise he has brains enough to know he can't expect to win a speed contest.

But when it comes to marriage—heaven help us. Women stake their lives, their futures, their all on men who have failed repeatedly as husbands; men bet their careers, their hopes, their children, all a woman may hope to acquire on women who never have and so far as anybody can see never will be worth a moment's serious thought.

Society does the same silly thing and then gasps when it collects on the crop it has sown.

This day a social worker drifted into my office blandly asking to get in touch with a woman whose run-away husband in Chicago had promised the charity organization in the windy city to marry a widow with eight children and SUPPORT the outfit if his wife in Los Angeles—whom, by the by, he had deserted—would give him a divorce.

The Chicago society knew he had refused to support a California family of three; yet they were willing and anxious to depend on him to maintain an Illinois family of NINE.

Such is the logic of the human when applied to human affairs.

Recently a woman, then suing for divorce, complained to an assemblage of fifty women of the philanderings of her husband and of the misery they had caused her.

"But five women had divorced him before you married him," suggested the blue ribbon cat of the gathering.

"I know," replied the wife. "But, of course, he made me think they were to blame."

And there'd been FIVE of them.

Even an elephant won't cross a bridge without testing its strength, but a woman will try to cross the stream of life on the promises of a man who has nothing back of him but an unbroken record of abject failures.

Folks are funny—when they are not pitifully pathetic.

WATCHING THE PARADE

By JOHN PILGRIM

Some one—Patterson McNutt, maybe—told a story a long time ago about a distance runner. He had won a race just by the length of his breath.

For a quarter of a mile the three leaders had fought it out on their nerve. They didn't have any wind or legs or strength left, or anything but courage. The crowd had been frantic. McNutt went into his dressing room after the race.

"Did you ever hear a crowd cheer so?" he was asked.

"Did they?" asked the runner. "I didn't know." Then he told McNutt the story. He said that applause was just as sweet to him as to any other normal human being. In some of his races, being sent in against him, he had been able to enjoy it.

Then, one day, he struck into the stretch with no one near him, so far as he knew. The thousands who lined the course and darkened the grandstand broke into a roar of applause.

"I let up a little," he said, "so I could enjoy it. And just as I was about to wave my hand something gray shot by me. It was a fellow I had forgotten about. He won the race. I haven't listened to the cheering since."

A good many of us are that way. We do pretty good work and then stop doing it while people tell us about it. We build up a good business and then neglect it so that we can go away to Palm Beach or Europe and have the sort of a good time that prosperous men should have. We get our lessons in school so easily that it hardly seems worth while to go on working hard. We enjoy making speeches—being the lion of an evening—and forget to burn the midnight oil.

It doesn't pay to listen to the cheering until the race is over. Then it doesn't really make any difference. The race is the thing—not the applause.

THE LISTENING POST

This is the hurrying age. Most everything has to be done in a hurry. Travel must be in a hurry.

Enthusiasts are prophesying the crossing of the continent in a few hours.

By airship.

The tendency of the age is toward speed. My friend stops at the door.

Says a word of greeting but cannot come in. He is in a hurry.

What about? Perhaps he knows and perhaps he does not.

The housewife telephones an order to the merchant.

She is in a hurry. Must have the goods immediately. So the merchant sends the deliveryman off.

In a hurry. And he encounters other drivers. All in a hurry.

The business man takes down the telephone transmitter.

And calls for a number. He is in a hurry. And the telephone operator has to be in a hurry.

And the person called has to hurry.

The chauffeur brings the car to the door. Madame is in a hurry. And here is another hurrying vehicle. Hurrying to get somewhere.

Songs of the Poets

Margaritas Sorori—By William Ernest Henley

A late lark twitters from the quiet skies:

And from the west,
Where the sun, his day's work ended,
Lingers as in content,
There falls on the old, gray city
An influence luminous and serene,
A shining peace.

So be my passing!
My task accomplish'd and the long day done,
My wages taken, and in my heart
Some late lark singing,
Let me be gather'd to the quiet west,
The Sundown splendid and serene,
Death.

THE EDUCATION BILL

By DR. FRANK CRANE

THE bill known in the last Congress as the Towner-Sterling Bill will be up for passage at the next session.

Some twenty-five million citizens, through various organizations, have endorsed it.

Among these organizations are the National Education association, the American Federation of Teachers, the General Federation of Women's Clubs, and the American Federation of Labor.

The object of the bill is to enable the nation properly to co-operate with and encourage the educational work in the various states. It is not proposed to imply the control of state education, nor in any wise to impair the freedom of the states in the management of their respective school systems.

It is proposed to help, to co-ordinate and to unify. The bill proposes three things:

1. To create a Department of Education, with a Secretary in the President's Cabinet.

This dignifies and elevates the business of education to the level where it belongs.

2. To create a National Council of one hundred representative educators and laymen, to meet annually at the call of the secretary.

Each of the forty-eight independent school systems could thus be represented.

3. To help the states in the solution of the five educational problems which are fundamental to good citizenship, to-wit:

(a) The removal of illiteracy.

(b) The Americanization of the foreign-born.

(c) The promotion of physical education.

(d) The training of teachers, and

(e) The equalization of educational opportunities.

The federal government has

The smoke ascends
In a rosy-and-golden haze. The spires
Shine and are changed. In the valley
Shadows rise. The lark sings on. The sun,
Closing his benediction,
Sinks, and the darkening air
Thrills with a sense of the triumphing night—
Night with her train of stars
And her great gift of sleep.

From its beginning aided it education by land grants and money. This bill is in line therefore, with our national tradition.

No one will deny that education is the most important public business, and most deserving of assistance. There is every reason to aid the schools, when, as President Harding said:

"We have aided industry through our tariffs, railways by land grants and loans, market roads and inland waterways, reclamation and irrigation, and the development of water power, and it has all been commendable and highly worth while."

And most highly worth while of all would it be to aid in education.

OBSERVED AT A GLANCE

A lecturer says that the rate of vibration is the key to happiness. Such piffle is amusing rather than instructive.

The ex-crown prince is not to be allowed to leave Holland unless he can beat the Dutch.

Announcement that McAdoo will be a candidate does not cause any shock of surprise.

Doc. Cook seems to be living as a business man up to the reputation he acquired as an explorer.

The leader of the Munich fiasco seems slow to realize when he has been lied.

Germany admits the ex-crown prince, but no excitement follows, he being what is known as a "dead one."

Officers of the law are getting whisky on the hip.

Long Beach mustered a Bible class having a membership of 31,034, but the class hopes to grow.

Stinnes hopes to control the oil of the world, but will first have to win the consent of a number of Americans.

While Secretary Mellon hopes to reduce income taxes, many individuals have deftly accomplished this for themselves.

EASTERN POINT OF VIEW

PINCHOT'S HURRY
[New York Tribune]

The record of Governor Pinchot in Pennsylvania is too clean-cut to permit any one to question his sincerity on the prohibition issue. He has devoted a major part of his energy and ability to the execution of the enforcement law. He has every right to speak as an apostle of the dry cause.

But, speaking as and when he did, he faced an unfortunate interpretation of his words. He demanded that the President take enforcement of the Volstead act out of politics.

The practical effect of his speech has been to put enforcement into politics for the first time. Governor Pinchot doubtless felt like Sir Galahad brandishing his white sword. To the hard-headed public, his gesture seems far more like the shying of another hat into the political ring.

SNAKE BEATS THE AUTO

Venomous snakes and man-hating animals still outshadow motor transportation in swilling casualty lists in British India. The mortality from snakebite for the past year is recorded at 20,090 as against 19,006 the previous twelve months.

A volume of reminiscences is expected from Ambassador Harvey, it is stated, but there is no rumor that Woodrow Wilson will write the foreword.

Modern Version of New Testament

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO MATTHEW

"If anyone wants to go with me, he must disregard himself and take his cross and follow me. For whoever wants to preserve his own life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for me will find it. For what good will it do a man if he gains the whole world but parts with his life? What can a man give to buy back his life? For the Son of Man is going to come with his angels in his Father's glory, and then he will repay everyone for what he has done. I tell you, some of you who stand here will certainly live to see the Son of Man come to reign!"

Six days after this, Jesus took Peter and James and his brother John, and led them up on a high mountain, by themselves. And his appearance underwent a change in their presence and his face shone like the sun, and his clothes became as white as light. And Moses and Elijah appeared to them, talking with him. And Peter spoke, and said to Jesus,

"Master, how good it is that we are here! If you wish, I will make three huts here, one for you, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah."

As he spoke a bright cloud overshadowed them and a voice from the cloud said,

"This is my Son, my Beloved. He is my Chosen. Listen to him!"

When the disciples heard it, they were dreadfully frightened and fell upon their faces. And Jesus came and touched them, and said,

"Get up and do not be afraid."

When they looked up, they saw no one but Jesus himself. And as they were going down the mountain, Jesus cautioned them, saying,

"Do not tell anyone of the vision you have seen until the Son of Man is raised from the dead."

The disciples asked him, "Then why do the scribes say that Elijah has to come first?"

He answered, "Elijah does come and is to reform everything, but I tell you, Elijah has come already, and they would not recognize him, but treated him just as they pleased. It is in just that way that the Son of Man is going to be treated by them!"

Then the disciples understood that he was speaking to them of John the Baptist.

When they came to the people again, a man came up to him and fell on his knees, saying,

"Master, take pity on my son, for he has epilepsy and is very wretched; he often falls into the fire or into the water. And I brought him to your disciples and they have not been able to cure him."

Jesus answered, "O you unbelieving, obstinate people! How long must I be with you! How long must I put up with you? Bring him here to me!"

And Jesus reproved the demon and it came out of him, and from that moment the boy was cured. Afterward, when he was alone, the disciples went to Jesus and said to him, "Why could we not drive it out?"

He said to them, "Because you have so little faith. For I tell you, if you have faith the size of a grain of mustard, you can say to this mountain 'Move from here over to there' and it will move, and nothing will be impossible for you."

As they were going about in Galilee, Jesus said to them, "The Son of Man is going to be handed over to men, and they will kill him, but on the third day he will be raised to life again." And they were greatly distressed.

When they reached Capernaum, the collectors of the temple-tax came and said to Peter, "Does not your Master pay the temple-tax?"

He said, "Yes."

But when he went home, Jesus spoke of it first and said, "What do you think, Simon? From whom do earthly kings collect duties and taxes? From their own people, or from aliens?"

He said, "From aliens."

Jesus said to him, "Then their own people are exempt. But rather than give offense to them, go down to the sea and throw in a hook. Take the first fish that comes up, open its mouth and you will find in it a dollar. Take that and pay the tax for us both."

Just at that time the disciples came up and asked Jesus, "Who is really greatest in the Kingdom of Heaven?"

He called a child to him and had him stand among them, and he said,

"I tell you, unless you change and become like children, you will never get into the Kingdom of Heaven at all. Anyone, therefore, who is as unassuming as this child is the greatest in the Kingdom of Heaven, and anyone who welcomes one child like this on my account welcomes me. But whoever hinders one of these children who believe in me might better have a great millstone hung around his neck and be sunk in the open sea. Alas for the world for such hindrances! They have to come, but alas for the man who causes them!"

"But if your own hand or your own foot makes you fall, cut it off and throw it away. You might better enter upon life maimed or crippled than keep both hands and feet but be thrown into the everlasting fire. And if your own eye makes you fall, dig it out and throw it away. You might better enter upon life with only one eye than be thrown with both eyes into the fiery pit."

"Beware of feeling scornful of one single little child, for I tell you that in heaven their angels have continual access to my Father in heaven. What do you think? If a man has a hundred sheep and one of them strays away, will he not leave the ninety-nine on the hills, and go in search of the one that is astray? And if he happens to find it, I tell you he rejoices more over it than he does over the ninety-nine that did not stray. In just that way, it is the will of my Father in heaven that not a single one of these children be lost."

"But if your brother wrongs you, go to him and show him his fault while you are alone with him. If he listens to you, you have won back your brother. But if he will not listen, take one or two others with you, so that everything may be supported by the testimony of two or three witnesses. If he refuses to listen to them, tell the congregation. And if he refuses to listen to it, treat him as a heathen or a tax-collector."

"I tell you, whatever you forbid on earth will be held in heaven to be forbidden, and whatever you permit on earth will be held in heaven to be permitted. Again, I tell you, if even two of you here on earth agree about what they shall pray for, it will be given them by my Father in heaven. For wherever two or three are gathered as my followers, I am there among them."

Then Peter came to him and said, "Master, how many times am I to forgive my brother when he wrongs me? Seven times over?"

Jesus said to him,

This little model home specially created for your consideration, reflects details and competent execution not usually found in home plans as small as this.
Not only has every department of the exterior been carefully considered, but the rooms themselves are just as compact and convenient as it is possible to arrange them.

The wall construction calls for stucco over brick, tile, composition plaster board, metal or wood lath
—while the roof is shown in tile, composition or slate shingles would be practical.

There are many features incorporated in the in-

News From All Over the World Gathered by the Camera

THE ONE WAY OUT—For the thousands of starving residents in Berlin and other big German cities is shown above. Driven to it by hunger, the city sufferers go into the country and steal available vegetables and meat. The photo shows a group of Berlin foragers waiting for the train in the country with their sacks of pillaged potatoes and other supplies.

WINDING UP HIS GRID CAREER—In phase of glory is Norman Cleveland of Berkeley, Cal., left half of the Stanford university grid team. He is called one of the greatest open field runners on the Pacific coast and is a star kicker. This is his last year.

FIRST LADY OF THE LAND—Braves the rain to plant the first college memorial tree on the grounds of the Lincoln Memorial in Washington. The ceremony is part of a program of tree planting by Oberlin (O.) college students throughout the world. President King of the college is aiding Mrs. Coolidge.

NATIONAL WOMAN'S PARTY LEADER—Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont, left, is greeted by Mrs. Charles A. Childs, as the former arrives in Washington to lead deputations of party in call on President Coolidge Nov. 17 and supervise lobbying campaign in congress in interest of the equal rights amendment.

THE APPLE OF HER EARS—Miss Ethel Riley suggests a new style of earrings while exhibiting two of the largest apples at the Orchard show held in New York city.

ONE OF THE FIRST—Of the season's arrivals at Miami, Fla., is Tah-ha-fee, this little Seminole Indian princess, who promises to become the pet of Miami's winter colony this year. She boasts of royal blood, being a direct descendant of a long line of Seminole chieftains. Her homemade dolly accompanies her.

SCULPTURE—As an accessory to architecture is emphasized by this work, "Vanity," a garden figure, shown by Mrs. George Oakley Totten, Jr., at the last exhibition of the Architectural League of New York.

NEWS FROM THE FRONT—Leaders of the newly formed Rhineland republic are still confident the republic will live despite unexpected opposition to it in important cities which they hoped to include in the state. The photo shows Dr. Deckers, one of the leaders, discussing latest developments with his adherents before his office in Aix La Chapelle, the city in which the republic was proclaimed.

HE'LL BE READY TO FINISH ANYTHING—Anybody starts in congress this winter. Meaning Rep. George Holden Tinkham of Massachusetts. He has just returned from finishing a rhinoceros, an elephant, one lion, six leopards and a variety of smaller game in an extended hunting trip into South Africa. He is shown above, with the rhino he shot and the whiskers he grew.

PERFECT LIVES—Are being lived by Joseph N. Salisbury, left, and fellow students at the Hannemann Medical college in Philadelphia, in order to test the strength of a drug, "X." Dr. Joseph Hepburn, right, is conducting the tests.

THE MAN WHO "GOT" MAX IMMELMANN—Is laid to rest. Sergt. Maj. James H. Waller, who, as a member of the British royal flying corps, brought down the great German aviator during the World war, is buried with military honors in St. Michael's cemetery, Astoria, L. I. He had been butler for C. K. G. Billings, millionaire horseman, since the war.

DYNAMITERS PLAY
COVINA ELEVEN
FOR PENNANTChampionship Game on the Local Field for Friday

Next Friday's game with Covina will be the final league game for Glendale. It also will be the supreme test for Covina has cut quite a figure in the Central league circles this year. Both teams have been tramping over every opponent in great style and this Friday Moyse field will be the scene of a terrific battle.

The Dynamiters are now traveling at a dizzy speed, and Coach Hayhurst finds it necessary some times to slow them up. Instead of coming out at 2:30 every afternoon, practically all of the "gang" appear on the field "ready to go" at about 1:30 or 2 o'clock. That is a mighty good illustration of the spirit that is found in the squad.

Numerous injuries have kept some of the "gridders" on the shelf lately. Walton has a shoulder that is badly twisted ankle, but this is rapidly improving. Dotson also has a weak ankle, but after a couple of days of rest he will be in top form. Those who have attended the recent games have seen the interlocking running by the Dynamiters, and have admired it. This department of the game is a most important feature, especially against the Red and Black gridders who are working hard to master this important art.

Last year the Covina team was Glendale's first opponent and they battled to a 0-0 tie on the former's gridiron. Moyse field will be the scene of this year's tangle, and the Dynamiters will be out to better the 0-0-0 tie.

Some more plays are being worked on and these will probably prove to be foolers. Many plays are being perfected, so if our friends from Covina start anything in the way of an aerial attack our Dynamiters will try to beat them at their own game.

Friday's game with Covina is the last game on the Central league schedule and a record-breaking crowd will be present. Of course every student of G. U. H. S. will be out and everyone hopes that our Red and Black "terrors" will play their usual clean, hard game and may be the best team win.

MIDGET GRIDDERS
WILL MEET
COVINAGlendale Lightweights in Last League Game
Tomorrow

The Glendale Midgets are to meet the Covina aggregation in the final clash of the season tomorrow afternoon. The game will be played at Covina but a large attendance is expected. If the Dynamiters can put a victory over the Covina team they will tie them for the championship of this league. The lightweights really deserve a standing ovation for the admirable way they have upheld the honor of Glendale. They have lost but one game this season and still stand in a good way of winning the Central league pennant.

It is seldom that one has the opportunity of seeing in a 130-pound team such a combination of skill and speed as is to be found among the Dynamiters. La Franchi is one of the ablest quarterbacks in the league, Lovell can pound the line with the best of them and Schuler and McAllister are not wanting in skill. The line has held the heavyweights almost to a standstill many times in tough scrimmages. Also one would look far to find a more sportsmanlike bunch than this team.

Taking all these things into consideration, when the Midgets meet Covina tomorrow it is expected that the Glendale rooting section will be exceedingly large and the cheering will be hearty and spirited.

Whether the actions taken are legal will be tested when the case of the Seattle club is heard.

STANFORD GAME
WILL DEDICATE
CALIF. STADIUM

California will dedicate her new million dollar football stadium situated in Strawberry canyon, just back of the university campus, with the annual California-Stanford game on November 24.

This stadium has been dedicated to the son of California who died in the World War and is the second largest in the west.

No doubt the long undefeated period that the Bruin varsity has enjoyed has given an impetus toward the completion of this vast structure, two scoreless ties in three years being the closest the Bears have come to this humiliation.

GIRLS INTERESTED
IN NEW TENNIS
TOURNAMENT

Much interest is being created among the tennis players of the feminine sex at Glendale High school by the new tennis tournament which is being arranged by Mary Barbara Taylor.

This tournament will be played off annually and the winner will have her name and class engraved on a silver cup or shield, which is to be donated by Mr. Taylor.

The rules for the tournament are:

- 1—All girls (except P. G.'s) can enter.
- 2—There will be two weeks to play off. Three days the first round, three days the second round, and two days the fourth round. Finals will be played at some other time.
- 3—All names must be in by November 28.
- 4—Sophomore and freshmen in upper half, juniors and seniors in lower half.
- 5—Gym periods (except by-laws) will be used for play offs.
- 6—All matches must be refereed.
- 7—The winner will have name and class engraved on cup or shield.

SPEEDWAY WILL BE IN SHAPE
FOR RACE122-Inch Racers Will Be Used in Thanksgiving
Event

In spite of the recent fire, the second within two weeks time, the Beverly Hills Speedway will be in shape for the annual Thanksgiving Auto Race, according to a statement of A. M. Young, manager of the Speedway association. The workmen are rapidly repairing the damaged area, and the track will soon be in shape for practice. The practice was scheduled to begin last Monday, but was delayed because of the second fire.

The Thanksgiving Day contest will be the first in this section where the 122-inch racers have been used. As a result there is much interest in these monoplane machines that have already shown a speed of 122 miles per hour in practice.

While reservations for seats for the Thanksgiving Day classic are rolling into the Speedway office, the drivers are working hard to speed up their cars for the coming championship event that will decide whether Jimmy Murphy will wear the crown for the second successive year or if the laurels will go to Eddie Hearne who won the championship back in 1919.

There are already sixteen entries for the coming race and several others are expected before the closing date.

Among the new drivers to be seen here Thanksgiving Day will be Martin de Alzaga, the speed king of the Argentine. This sensational South American is the man who brought the five-car Bugatti team over from Europe to compete in the last 500 mile race at Indianapolis and his work on the Hoosier brick speedway showed that "he has a lot of stuff on the ball." Alzaga had on his Bugatti team four of the best drivers of Europe and he was the outstanding star of them all. Even Count Louis Zborowski and Prince Bertrand de

LOCAL DE MOLAYS
BOX ONTARIO, PLAY
BASKETBALL GAME

Boxers of the local chapter of De Molay will have a chance to show their stuff tonight when they meet the mitt men from the Ontario chapter at the local high school gymnasium. Scraps in all classes and weights will take place. Although the names of the Glendale boxers have not yet been divulged, it is known that the local De Molays have a snappy bunch of fighters, who have been coached for the past few weeks by Coach Wolf, boxing instructor at the high school. The Ontario bunch are scrappers and are expected to fight hard.

After the boxing bouts the De Molay basketball team will play the Standard Oil five in their first game of the season. The De Molays had a great team last season and rumor has it that they are due to repeat their success of last year, as all of the old team is again on deck with a number of new players on the job.

Cystria, were declared to be inferior to Alzaga.

Cliff Durant is to have a new car in the coming race. Jerry Wonderlich has taken over the mount formerly piloted by the famous patron of the racing sport and Durant will go on the course with a new speed creation when practice starts. The new Durant racer has many special features incorporated in its construction by Harry A. Miller, the famous engineer who has been associated with Durant in the building of racing cars for the past three years.

Durant's new car is claimed to be the most expensive racing automobile ever built. The cost almost reached the $20,000 mark while the average racing car costs approximately $10,000.

As Murphy must win the coming race to win the championship he is out to win first place or nothing. Eddie Hearne has to finish in third place only to retain the lead he now has, so he will not be out to take any chances on the title. There are so many drivers who have suffered so much misfortune during the season that nothing but first place will do for them, so it is certain that Murphy will have a lot of competition.

CUB BASKETBALL CONFERENCE RACE
SQUAD BEGINS
TO WORKSouthern Branch Begins
Preparations for the Casaba Season

Tuning up for another championship season, U. C. basketball aspirants are practicing nightly in the Vermont ave. gym. Intensive training is being dished out in preparation for the inter-class tilts next week.

Si Gibbs, '23, who will assist Coach Caddy Works in moulding this season's varsity creation, has a nice bunch of freshmen hopefuls out to pick from. Out of more than sixty men who signed up at the basketball rally Monday, approximately forty were freshmen, twenty Sophomores, and the remainder Juniors.

These men are all candidates for inter-class team berths, and are being coached by Si Gibbs, Bill Goertz and Wilbur Johns. The last two, Goertz and Johns, are former Glendale high basketball stars. Though Coach Gibbs seems to have a great advantage in the amount of material from which to pick the Freshmen team, the Sophomores and Junior candidates are, for the most part, experienced players, and familiar with the California system of play which will be used by all teams.

Bill Goertz especially is blessed by having a number of men from last year's championship Freshmen aggregation out for the Sophomore team. Wilbur Johns the Juniors are few in number, but have been showing some high class stuff in practice.

Varsity Coach Caddy Works is keenly scrutinizing all scrimmages in search of prospective talent for the varsity aggregation, as Bresse, Johns and Goertz are the only let-terms back.

Games Saturday
S. B. U. C. at Occidental.

There will be but one game played in the Southern California conference this Saturday. The Southern Branch Cubs will meet Occidental at Patterson park in a game that appears to be an easy victory for the Tigers. If Occidental cops the game it will make a three cornered tie out of the conference race, Pomona, Caltech and Occidental holding down the top berth. Whittier is not far behind, but the defeat of the Poets at the hands of Pomona Monday puts them out of the running.

The championship game will be the contest on the 24th between Pomona and Occidental. It will result in the elimination of one of the teams and both of them in case that the Tigers lose next Saturday to the Cubs and then defeat Pomona. This would give the championship to Caltech. However, if the Engineers drop to the Cubs on the 24th they will drop out of the race unless the above-mentioned should happen, making a three cornered tie, with the chance that Whittier may ring in on the meek by winning the last game from Redland, which seems more than likely.

Assuming that Caltech will trim the Southern Branch on the 24th we arrive at the conclusion that the Engineers cannot get less than tie for first place out of this year's race. A great deal depends on the Pomona-Oxy game to be played at Claremont on the same date.

AUTO REPAIRING
"SO EASY"
Clutch Attachment for Chevrolet Cars

There is nothing so annoying or injurious as the constant grabbing of a clutch which has a tendency to loosen the mechanical parts of the radiator to the rear end and is extremely unpleasant to the ones riding in the car. After this grabbing has taken place for a short time there is a likelihood of its tearing the whole rear end out, which is an unnecessary expense if you will only realize the clutch of any car needs occasional attention.
You will have a smooth, easy but positive action thereby saving yourself expensive repair bills and making riding a pleasure as the
"SO EASY" makes a good clutch better.

A SAN DIEGO DAILY OF 52 YEARS IN THE PAST

C. Alberti of San Diego, a friend in the spirit of "Glendale Old Timer" though they never met in the flesh, recently sent to the latter a copy of the San Diego Union, which had on its front page a fac simile of the first page of the initial copy of the Union, issued 52 years ago. It was then a 5-column, 4-page sheet, boasted a circulation of 400 copies and was printed on a Washington hand press. The subscription was $10 a year, unvarying in advance, or 25 cents a week by carrier. The operating force was an editor, a business manager and collector, one printer and an office "devil." For years one compositor set all the type including the ads. He is the only one of the original four still living and is now 80 years of age. The business manager and collector, S. W. Bushyhead, was a full-blooded Cherokee Indian, son of Chief Bushyhead, but a keen business man for all that.

GLOBE BUILDERS SUPPLY CO. PUTS ON SPECIAL SALE

Due to a steady increase in business, the Globe Builders' Supply company, 214 West Broadway, has recently purchased an additional truck to meet the large delivery demands which they were unable to handle with the former fleet of cars. A new man has been added to the force, also, and it is now ready to serve the people of Glendale with the best in hardware and building supplies.

The Globe carries only the best known and proven grades of paint and supplies and maintains a low standard of prices, which has helped a great deal towards the astounding growth of the store. Besides giving record values in the hardware line, the firm furnishes expert painters, paperhangers and decorators, all at a minimum price. Next Friday and Saturday a special sale of linoleum, wall paper, floor wax, window shades, etc., will be held, these articles and many others to be sold at a great discount from their already low figures.

LEGION NEWS

For God and Country, we associate ourselves together for the following purposes: To uphold and defend the Constitution of the United States of America; to maintain law and order; to foster and perpetuate a one hundred percent Americanism; to preserve the memories and incidents of our association in the Great War; to inculcate a sense of individual obligation to the community, state and nation; to combat the autocracy of both the classes and the masses; to make right the master of might; to promote peace and good will on earth; to safeguard and transmit to posterity the principles of justice, freedom and democracy; to consecrate and sanctify our comradeship by our devotion to mutual helpfulness. Preamble to the Constitution of the American Legion.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal. Nov. 14.—California legionnaires will hold the plea of President Coolidge and join in the nation-wide observance of Education Week, November 18 to 24.

Morgan Keaton, state adjutant of the American Legion in California, has issued a call to every legion post in the state to aid him in the celebration of the movement started four years ago by the legion.

Keaton has called upon the best orators in the ex-service men's ranks to enlist for participation in the week's ceremonies in the various cities of California. Speakers will be furnished to all schools and organizations and programs arranged for the observance of American Education Week to those requesting them.

The United States bureau of education and the National Education association are behind the idea of American Education Week which is intended as a part of the Americanization work of the legion.

Ministers of every denomination have been requested to begin the week's observance on November 18 by preaching a sermon on education.

American Constitution Day is scheduled for Monday, November 19; legion men and their friends will visit the schools on this day and special programs are to be arranged to tell the children of the constitution. "Ballots, not bullets," is to be the slogan for the day.

Other programs for the week are as follows: Tuesday, Nov. 20, Patriotism Day; Wednesday, Nov. 21, School and Teacher; Thursday, Nov. 22, Literacy Day; Friday, Nov. 23, Community Day; Saturday, Nov. 24, Physical Education Day.

Adjutant Keaton has requested the mayors of each California community to issue a proclamation setting aside the week as American Education Week. Newspapers, merchants, motion picture houses and civic and business organizations will join with the legion in observing the week.

James K. Fisk of Berkeley is chairman of the Americanization committee for the California legion members.

POSSESSION

There's not a shade where I may lie
And rest beneath the sunny sky.
But that shade and its parent tree
Are mine, and both were made for me.

There's not a flower sweet that grows,
Or violet or gorgeous rose,
But that same flower like the tree
Blooms and is mine, and grew for me.

There's not a sunset that may spread
The sky with its resplendent red
But it was painted there that I Might see it in the gorgeous sky.

There's not a kind word I have heard
But it was meant for me, each word
And thought of it, and I shall take
It to myself for kindness' sake.

There's not a stream flows to the sea
But it is mine and flows for me,
And every eddy, swirl and rill
Is mine, by the All-knowing Will.

And every truth, where it may lie,
In earth or air or sea or sky,
Or soul of man, what may it be,
That truth is mine and made for me.

Love, Beauty, Truth, where they may be,
How I may find or where may see,
I know, like flower and rill and tree,
Each one is mine and made for me.

AT THE THEATRES

"GOING UP" AT THE GLENDALE, MOST AMUSING FILM

A man who is scared to death and pretends he isn't always has been made into sure-fire comedy on the stage and still more so on the screen. Such is the basis of "Going Up," Douglas MacLean's first star photoplay, which has its last showing today at the Glendale theatre. Mr. MacLean and his excellent supporting cast develop this famous musical comedy into a riot of laughter. To see this film hero looping and zigzagging in a contest with a real French ace and finally chasing him out of the sky is one of the most novel and shrieking situations yet devised by a screen comedian.

HISTORIC THAMES RIVER FIGURES IN FILM AT GATEWAY

Water scenes filmed on the Thames river at New London, Conn., where many university boat races have been held, will be of exceptional interest to all who see Thomas Meighan's new Paramount picture, "Homeward Bound," at the Gateway theatre today.

With a staff of nearly 30 assistants and players, Director Ince spent several weeks in and about New London, where the yacht and dock scenes, shipping yards and ocean storms were filmed. The sea shots, by Ernest Haller, are said to be remarkable in many respects, while the ingenuity of Director Ince in devising terrific storm scenes with unexampled realism, was fully tested.

The story deals with a sailor and the daughter of a ship owner, who are the principals in a thrilling love romance. The various characters are admirably portrayed. Lila Lee as the heroine is playing opposite Mr. Meighan. The supporting cast is wholly adequate and includes Charles Abbe, who played in support of Mr. Meighan in "Cappy Ricks," Hugh Cameron, also of the "Cappy Ricks" cast; William T. Carleton, Gus Weinberg, Maude Turner Gordon, Cyril Ring and others.

Then there are five acts of vaudeville of the better kind.

"THE LAST HOUR" WITH MILTON SILLS AT THE T. D. & L.

It needs only the announcement of Milton Sills in a cast to draw a crowd but when we add to this such stars as Abe Francis, Carmel Myers, Walter Long, Jack Mower and Pat O'Malley, all of whom appear in "The Last Hour," showing at the T. D. & L. theatre today, we know all patrons of this popular playhouse will be on the qui vive.

"The Last Hour" is tense, stirring, gripping. And then there are the usual five acts of good vaudeville, headed by Miller Bros.' band and orchestra.

merce on the occasion of the organization's 35th birthday, when the huge cake was cut by Secretary Frank Wiggins. A third very beautiful picture is devoted to the opening of the largest and latest coast hydro-electric power house in the High Sierras, which is also the second largest working water power plant in the world. In addition to shots of the power house, machinery and pen stocks, several very beautiful shots are shown of the entire waters of the San Joaquin river being discharged temporarily over a 1500-foot high cliff.

YOU CAN GET IZEN OF MONARCH AUTO SUPPLY CO.

The Monarch Auto Supply company, 204 South Brand, has taken the Glendale agency for Izen, the wonder preservative for metals, and is this week giving a free demonstration in preserving and brightening of silver, nickel, etc. Izen is not a polish. A polish will wear off and lose its luster, but Izen is practically permanent. A metal radiator applied with the fluid more than five years ago is still in an extremely bright condition due to the wonderful properties of this extraordinary discovery. It is used on all kinds of old silverware, brass, nickel, bronze, etc., which make it a necessity in the home and for the auto owner who demands a bright and shiny car. In addition to furnishing a permanent luster, Izen is a strong preventative of rust, corrosion and other metal destroyers.

Glendale residents are urged to come into the store and see this wonderful demonstration, and also to bring in any tarnished or rusty silverware and have it restored to its former state of brightness.

S. W. HUNTINGTON
OWNER OF ARMY
AND NAVY STORE

In our Armistice Day edition printed Monday, Nov. 12, on the large page ad furnished by several local merchants, Wm. Huntington was the name given as the proprietor of the Original Army and Navy store, 201 South Brand.

Through a misunderstanding this name was used instead of that of S. W. Huntington, the owner. We take this opportunity to correct our mistake, and to apologize to Mr. Huntington.

It comes with every sack of cement. It has been made possible through the Portland Cement Association by the eighty-six cement manufacturers who are its members.

They realized that important research and educational work was necessary to give people the best information on how to use cement. They also realized that this could be done better by unified effort than by any individual company alone.

As a result, you may have for the asking the benefit of this Association's long and exhaustive studies on how best to use cement for the most satisfactory results in concrete construction.

Whatever use you plan to make of cement—whether you are building a concrete hog house or concrete dairy barn, a stretch of concrete walk or a concrete road, a silo or a skyscraper, a home, workshop or a factory—you needn't guess. You can know.

If you want information about the usefulness of concrete under certain conditions, how to mix or place it to get the greatest value out of every sack of cement—you can get it by writing any one of our 28 offices listed below.

Supplying dependable information without charge by booklet, by letter or by personal conference when necessary, is the work of this Association. Millions of helpful booklets, covering a multitude of uses of concrete, are distributed annually to people who know they needn't guess—who know they can get the facts from us.

One of our new booklets, "Concrete in Home Sanitation," will surprise you with the number of easy ways in which concrete can be used to make the home healthier and happier. Address our nearest district office for your free copy.
